SANTO DOMINGO PRESIDENT SLAIN

President Caecenas Meets His Fate at the Hands of Political Plotters

Washington, Nov. 22—Ramon Caecenas, president of Santo Domingo was assassinated by political malecontents in Santo Domingo on yesterday.

News of the murder was sent by American charge Endicott.
Russell, the American Minister to Santo Domingo is at present in this country on a leave of absence.
Caecenas fell a victim to one of the characteristic Dominican plots.
Caecenas' administration which lasted four years, an almost unprecedented period in Dominican history, recently has been disturbed by well defined revolutionary plots.

Last April Caecenas became convinced that a formidable movement was looking to his overthrow headed by Gen. Carlos M.
Morales who had preceded him to the presidency of Santo Domingo.

Important Announcement

A careful study of the merits of the various vacuum cleaners, has satisfied me that the Home Vacuum Cleaner of Cincinnati, Ohio is the best before the public. Other machines costs from ten to twenty-five dollars. The "Home" costs $8.50, is strong and durable, easy and perfect in its action and household or muffled like the dust, as not a particle escapes into the room.

The two quarts of poisonous germs extracted from one carpet should be consumed in the stove.
The machine weighs only nine pounds. A bright little girl ten years old can work the machine perfectly.

My first consignment of Home Vacuum Cleaners will be received in ten days or two weeks. For full information regarding machine, or sale of county rights, call upon or address

REVOLTING STORY OF DISGRACE

Trial of Twelve Inhuman Brutes Who Outraged a Female Teacher.

Lincoln Center, Kansas, Nov. 22 —While the young victim listened calmly Chester Anderson, a laborer Monday related to the jury the story of how ten men, including himself dragged Miss Mary Chamberlain from a buggy and poured warm tar on her naked body.

Anderson said that he had never heard any gossip besmirching the character of Miss Chamberlain. He told how the tarring was planned and of the masks the men wore.

Anderson said he arranged with Anderson said he arranged with Edward Ricord, a barber to take the girl for a buggy ride so that she might be captured by the men and told of going back to Clark's mill to notify the gang.

Ricord, took the witness stand just before court adjourned for the day and corroborated Anderson's story of how Miss Chamberlain was deceived by him and how they were held up and the girl was tarred.

The night of the tarring, Anderson and Kindesparger drove to the scene in a buggy while the other men went on motorcycles.
When he got to the scene of the tarring Anderson said he laughed, for there stood Everett Clark a wealthy miller of Beverly, his head covered with a gunnysack through which holes for his eyes and mouth had been punched, adding that by Clark's side was Jay Fitzwater, his head covered with a mill sack.

When Miss Chamberlain and Ricord came along, Anderson said that he and Kindesparger stepped out into the road and pointed toy pistols and halted the pair.
The other men wearing masks took the school teacher out of the buggy and Ricord got out and hid and another man held the tar can.

Anderson said two of the men were Everett Clark and Fitzwater and he did not know the third one.

After the tar had been rubbed on, Miss Chamberlain was helped into her clothes and with the tar dripping from her she got into the buggy and drove away with Ri-cord.

Alfa Linderbuth one of Anderson's companions corroborated the testimony. He said that he took no part in the tarring, merely hiding behind a tree to see the fun.

A huge crowd filled Judge Grover's Court room almost to suffocation.

Miss Chamberlain who was tarred and feathered by the mob took the stand and told in detail how the crowd of men mistreated her.

She said Edward Ricord, who betrayed her to the mob first made indecent proposals to her which she repulsed and when they reached a lonely spot the men sprang upon her and dragged her from the carriage.

They pulled her clothes from her body while she screamed for help.

Ricord ran and hid.

The men wore masks and after throwing her to the ground naked, four of them held her head arms and feet while another put tar on her body with a brush.

They jeered her as they piled tar on the body.

She emphatically denied ever acting improperly.

Hotel Changes Hands

A deal was consummated here this week through the Broxson-Mitchell agency by which Mr. J.
C. Maxwell has sold the Maxwell hotel property to Mr. R. H.
Thompson of Maury county, Tennessee for $5000.

Mr. Thompson owns a large farm northeast of Snyder and shows his faith in Snyder and Seaury county by this purchase of other valuable property here.

It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson will move in from the farm and have charge of the hotel.

Depend On Us For Your Medicines

Your doctor will never have the slightest cause for complaint about the way we fill prescriptions.

He will praise the fidelity and exactness with which we follow his directions, and the pure, fresh quality of the drugs we use.

But our medicines are not more satisfactory than prices. It is this combination of high quality and prices that has built up our business. We will appreciate your trade.
